BRIAN GIMMILLARO

Head Coach • 28th Season

Regarded as one of the top volleyball minds in the country, Brian Gimmillaro is set to enter his 28th season at Long Beach State over the 2012 season. The Long Beach State graduate has continually taken the 49ers to new heights as one of the winningest and most successful volleyball programs over the past three decades. His dedication to the sport and his student-athletes was recognized most recently in December 2008, when Gimmillaro was part of the three-person class inducted into the AVCA Hall of Fame, honoring individuals who have greatly contributed to the game of volleyball.

Because of Gimmillaro, Long Beach State has earned a place among the nation's elite. With three National Championships, eight Final Fours, 13 NCAA Regionals and 26 NCAA Tournament appearances to his credit, it is no wonder that Long Beach State enters every season as a national contender. Over the past 15 seasons, LBSU has won a national title, has appeared in four Final Fours and six NCAA Regionals. Over that time, the team record is an impressive 401-93, winning over 80 percent of their matches. With a 3-0 win over UC Irvine in 2010, Gimmillaro became just the eighth active coach to reach 700 Division I wins and the 10th all-time to reach 700 wins all coming at Division I. Gimmillaro ranks 16th in all-time victories, and his 726-178 all-time record stands as the No. 7 career winning percentage in Division I among active coaches.

Against one of the toughest conferences in the country, the Big West, LBSU has won 78 percent (357-101) of their matches, winning 12 conference crowns. In 19 of the last 20 seasons, Gimmillaro's teams have won at least 20 matches.

That streak continued last season in 2011, as the 49ers went 23-7 overall and reached the team's 25th consecutive NCAA Tournament, matching just three other teams in the nation in a streak this long. Both senior Caitlin Ledoux and sophomore Haleigh Hampton received honorable mention All-America honors as well as first-team All-West Region accolades, and the pair led the 49ers as first-team All-Big West selections. Sophomore outside hitter Delainey Aigner-Swesey was named honorable mention All-Big West, while Alma Serna and Erin Juley each received All-Freshman honors from the Big West. With another outstanding season, the 49ers have now recorded 1,096 all-time wins, fifth-most in NCAA history.

But wins alone do not define Long Beach State's volleyball program. Former setter Keri Nishimoto was a two-time Academic All-American, following in the footsteps of another volleyball player, Anja Grabovac, who was an Academic All-American in 1999. Prior to the 2003 season, Gimmillaro was the sole recipient of the USA Volleyball All-Time Great Coach Award (in the Donald S. Shondell Contemporary Division).

In receiving the award, Gimmillaro joined an elite group of volleyball coaches. Also in 2003, Gimmillaro was bestowed with the "Excellence in Leadership" award, presented by Leadership Long Beach.

Gimmillaro is also a three-time National Coach of the Year, earning American Volleyball Coaches Association (AVCA) National Coach of the Year honors in 1998 and ASICS Tiger National Coach of the Year accolades in 1989 and 1998. Also in 1999, Gimmillaro was named the U.S. Olympic Committee's Coach of the Year, the only non-Olympic coach such honored. In 1989, 1991, 1994 and 1997 Gimmillaro was named one of eight Regional Coaches of the Year. Gimmillaro has also earned Big West Coach of the Year honors seven times (2005, 2001, 1998, 1997, 1994, 1992 and 1991).

Gimmillaro's players are a testament to his program. In January of 2001, the NCAA released its 20th Anniversary team. Of the six players chosen, three were Gimmillaro's former players. Those three players serve as a who's who of women's volleyball. All three were Olympians in Sydney in 2000 and Athens in 2004, all three were National Players of the Year and all three led the 49ers to a National Title. Gimmillaro has coached six AVCA National Players of the Year. Cross-Battle and May have each won the award twice, while Scott and Antoinette White each earned the honor one time. Cross-Battle is a former player-coach for the National team, a four-time Olympian and a two-time World Player of the Year. Danielle Scott-Arruda was named to a record fifth Olympic squad in 2012, the only player to have that honor in USA women's indoor volleyball history, passing Cross-Battle who represented Team USA four times. Finally, Misty May-Treanor is regarded as the top beach volleyball player in the world.

Long Beach State continues to have a tradition of Olympic success from Gimmillaro's players. This summer, three former 49ers claimed Medals in London. May-Treanor capped an unprecedented run in Beach Volleyball with her partner Kerri Walsh, capturing a third straight Gold Medal after winning in 2008 in Beijing and 2004 in Athens. Also, in women's volleyball, Scott-Arruda and Tayyiba Haneef-Park repeated as medalists after winning the Silver in Beijing, capturing another Silver Medal for the USA, in London. Those finishes followed the 2004 squad, where the 49ers had the most players from any college in Cross-Battle, Scott-Arruda, and Haneef-Park, as Cross-Battle was making her fourth Olympic appearance, setting a mark that was only passed in London by Scott-Arruda. In all, Gimmillaro's players have represented the United States in volleyball in each of the last six Olympiads.

Gimmillaro's finest season came in 1998, when the 49ers became the first NCAA Division-I volleyball team ever to finish the season undefeated. The Beach captured their third National title in Madison, Wisconsin, finishing 36-0. The team also won National titles in 1993 and 1989. In 1989, it was the first Division-I Championship for Long Beach State in any sport. The Beach has reached eight NCAA Final Fours, participating in 1989, 1991, 1992, 1993, 1997, 1998, 1999 and 2001. Twice over the past decade the team has reached three consecutive Final Fours, winning a National title during each of those runs. Twice the team has run the table during the regular season, during the NCAA Championship year of 1998 and in 2001.

What may be most impressive about the team's incredible run is how far it has come. When Gimmillaro started in 1985, he took over a team that had struggled in the late 1970's and early 1980's, and had not won a National title since 1972 and 1973. The team played in the Gold Mine, a small gymnasium in the middle of campus, which the team rarely filled. Today, the team is one of the nation's best, plays before large crowds at the Walter Pyramid, and continues to develop some of the best volleyball players in the country.

Before coming back to his alma mater, Gimmillaro coached at perennial volleyball powerhouse Gahr High School in Cerritos, Calif. (1978-1985). During his tenure, he led his team to four CIF-Southern Section Championships (1978, 1979, 1983 and 1984) and Division-I State Championships in 1983 and 1984. In 1984 and 1985, Gahr won the CIF Southern Section 5-A Division Championship and was a Division-I state finalist. In eight years, Gimmillaro compiled a stellar 142-15 (.905) record. All told, Gimmillaro sent eight consecutive teams to the CIF Playoffs. A national No. 1 ranking in 1984 was a testament to his success at Gahr.

During the same period, Gimmillaro served as the business manager for the United States Women's Volleyball Olympic Team (1982-84). His duties included organization and development of publicity, budget, fund-raising and promotion. He has also been the president and owner of the California Juniors Volleyball Club since 1978.

A voting member of the AVCA Top 25 Poll, Gimmillaro is a four-time Century Club Coach Award Winner, and in 1992, the Century Club bestowed on Gimmillaro its Michael Brian Warren award for outstanding contribution to furthering the goals of women's athletics.

Gimmillaro graduated from Long Beach State in 1970 with a Bachelor of Arts degree in Economics. Gimmillaro has two children: a son, Stefan, and daughter, Lauren.

Erika CHIDESTER

Assistant Coach
Fourth Season

Erika Chidester enters her fourth year on the Long Beach State staff, serving as the top assistant. Chidester primarily works with the back row while handling equipment, travel and assisting with recruiting.

Chidester spent five years at Long Beach State as an athlete, playing middle blocker. As a freshman reserve in 2001, she reached the championship match with the 49ers. In 2002, she led the team with a .380 hitting percentage and earned All-Big West honors. A second All-Big West nod followed in her junior season, when she led Long Beach State in kills with 487 and received an All-Region Honorable Mention. After a medical redshirt in 2004, she closed out her career in 2005 with another outstanding year, posting 312 kills and once again earning All-Big West and All-Region honors.

Following her playing career, Chidester spent two years as a graduate assistant at the University of La Verne, making two NCAA appearances and reaching the championship game in 2008. She has also worked as an assistant at Lakewood High School and has coached at the club level with Golden West and Cal Juniors. She earned her Master's degree in business administration from La Verne in 2010.

Matt ULMER

Assistant Coach
Fourth Season

Matt Ulmer returns for a sixth season with Long Beach State and is in his fourth as a full-time assistant. He will work with the block and the setters, and assists with scheduling and recruiting.

Before his promotion, Ulmer spent two seasons with the program as a volunteer assistant.

Ulmer came to Long Beach from Carthage College, where he was a setter under head coach LJ Marx. While at Carthage, he led the team to two National Championship appearances, and was named a first-team D-III All-American as a senior. He finished his college career as the Carthage career leader in both assists and service aces.

While at Carthage, Ulmer also worked as an assistant coach for the women's team, serving for five years from 2002-2006. He also worked as the club coach for TNT Volleyball Club from 2003-07, and has served with the Cal Juniors club team while in Southern California, helping the team earn two All-American selections on the way to a bronze medal in the Junior Olympics.

Ulmer completed his Master's degree in education in 2008 at Long Beach State. He graduated from Carthage in May 2007.

Nicole VARGAS

Volunteer Assistant Coach
First Season

Nicole Vargas returns to Long Beach State in 2012 as the volunteer assistant coach for the 49ers.

A four-year starter at setter for Long Beach State, Vargas has a wealth of playing experience to draw upon in her coaching career. Taking over as the starter for Long Beach State as a true freshman in 2005, Vargas led the 49ers to four straight NCAA Tournament appearances and to the second round as a sophomore, junior, and senior.

A two-time first-team All-Big West selection, Vargas finished her career with the fourth-most assists in school history, 4,695, trailing just Sheri Sanders, Misty May-Treanor, and Sabrina Hernandez in the career lists.

Graduating in 2009, Vargas then spent two years with the USA national team, and then played professionally with Nantes in France.

Vargas coached last season with Golden West in club volleyball, leading the U16 program, and has also worked in instructional camps for over five years. She is the daughter of long-time LBSU assistant coach Debbie Green, who recently retired.

Coming Back

Five starters return for the 49ers in 2012, and in all, the 49ers have six players back that played over 100 sets in 2011. Haleigh Hampton, Tyler Jackson, and Janisa Johnson all played every set last season for the 49ers, and Hampton and Johnson were both starters for the 49ers at middle blocker and outside hitter respectively. Hampton was an Honorable Mention All-American as well as a first-team All-Big West selection, while Johnson was third on the team in kills and second in digs, averaging 3.07 per match. Jackson is the likely candidate to replace departed senior Lauren Minkel at the libero position, having made 243 digs and 29 aces last year as a true freshman. The 49ers have three other returning freshman starters from a young 2011 squad. Sophomore Erin Juley returns after making 1,146 assists last season and leading the team to a Big West high .252 team hitting percentage and an All-Freshman Team appearance. Also named to the All-Freshman team was Alma Serna, who had 190 kills and averaged 1.32 blocks per set, second in the conference behind Hampton. Bre Mackie came on in the second half of the season, starting on the right side, and finished the season averaging 1.64 kills per set. The other returner is honorable mention All-Big West selection Delainey Aigner-Swesey.

Keep Em Coming

In 2011, Long Beach State reached its 25th consecutive NCAA Tournament, a feat matched by just three other schools: Penn State, Stanford, and Nebraska. The 49ers have now made 26 NCAA Tournament appearances, all coming under Brian Gimmillaro. The 25 straight under one coach is matched only by Russ Rose at Penn State, as the 49ers continue to excel annually.

The New Big West

Despite being the defending Big West champions, Long Beach State was pushed out of the top spot in the preseason coaches poll by returning member Hawaii, as the Rainbow Wahine received nine first place votes. The No. 8 team in the nation, Hawaii was picked second by the coach that picked Cal Poly to finish first. Long Beach State finished second, receiving at least 8 second-place votes from the conference's coaches. Cal State Northridge was picked third, while the Mustangs, despite their first place vote, were picked to finish seventh.

Honoring the 49ers

Long Beach State had two players receive All-America honors for the second time in the last three years in 2011, as senior outside hitter Caitlin Ledoux and sophomore middle blocker Haleigh Hampton each were named Honorable Mention All-America after receiving first-team AVCA All-Region honors. In the Big West honors, Ledoux became just the seventh four-time first-team All-Big West selection, joining Hampton as the two first-team All-Big West selections for the Big West champions. Sophomore Delainey Aigner-Swesey was tabbed as an honorable mention, and setter Erin Juley and middle blocker Alma Serna both received a selection on the Big West All-Freshman team.

Start It Up

The 49ers have a number of intriguing position battles to start the season. Delainey Aigner-Swesey, Janisa Johnson, and Alex Reid will share the swings at OH until two separate themselves, and while Alma Serna has one MB position locked up, the second will be contested between Chisom Okpala and Kitan Ajanaku in the absence of Hampton. At setter, Tara Roenicke will get the early nod while Erin Juley finishes her recovery from offseason surgery, and Tyler Jackson is tabbed as the early season libero. Bre Mackie has the right side locked up, and Chelsea Cabrajac and Libby Fontanilla will compete for the remaining back row position.

BIG WEST CONFERENCE

BIG WEST CONFERENCE WOMEN'S VOLLEYBALL

The Big West has established an impeccable pedigree in the sport of women's volleyball as it enters its 29th season of conference sponsorship.

Since 1984, the Big West Conference has enjoyed success in the sport of women's volleyball with six national championships, eight national players of the year, over one-hundred All-America awards and three National Coaches of the Year. With the addition of the University of Hawai'i this year, the Big West Conference has positioned itself as one of the nation's elite conferences.

The Big West has sent a representative to the Final Four in 14 of its 28 years as a volleyball conference. In 2001, Long Beach State earned its eighth trip to the Final Four and reached the national championship match for the fourth time. The Big West has only sent less than three teams to the NCAA Tournament five times. In addition, Big West schools have tallied a 103-64 record (.618) against nonconference opponents all-time in the NCAA Tournament.

In 1999, the Big West comprised half of the contingent at the Final Four in Honolulu, Hawai'i, with the presence of Long Beach State and Pacific. It marked the first time since 1994 that two teams from the same conference competed at the prestigious event.

The alumni who have competed in the Big West reads like a Who's Who of volleyball superstars. Long Beach State's Misty May, a two-time NCAA Player of the Year, is widely considered the best collegiate volleyball player ever. She is now known as one of the world's top beach players. Long Beach State's Tara Cross and Danielle Scott, and Pacific's Elaina Oden have contributed greatly to the success of the United States Olympic Team in indoor volleyball. The conference was represented in the 2008 and 2012 Olympic Games by former Big West athletes - Misty May (Long Beach State), Danielle Scott-Arruda (Long Beach State), Tayyiba Haneef-Park (Long Beach State), Jennifer Joines (Pacific) and Heather Bown (UC Santa Barbara).

The quality of coaching in the Big West Conference is also top notch. Three of the nation's all-time winningest coaches are in the Big West - Long Beach State's Brian Gimmillaro, UC Santa Barbara's Kathy Gregory and Hawai'i's Dave Shoji. Shoji, who leads all DI active coaches in victories with 1,045, ranks second among active DI coaches with a .853 winning percentage while Gimmillaro's .804 career winning percentage ranks sixth all-time among active DI coaches. Shoji (1,045 wins) and Gregory (847 wins) are two of just nine coaches in NCAA history to surpass the 800-win career mark.

1989 National Champions

It was a storybook season for the 49ers in 1989 as Long Beach State captured its first-ever NCAA Championship. In fact, it was the first NCAA Division I Championship by any sport at the school. The 49ers finished the season at 32-5 after compiling a 13-5 mark in the tough Big West conference.

Leading the way was first-team All-America selection Tara Cross. Cross, who was named the AVCA Co-Player of the Year along with Teee Sanders-Williams of Hawaii, tallied a school-record 779 kills on the season. LBSU defeated San Diego State in the first round of the NCAA Tournament 15-7, 15-7, 15-10. From there it was on to the Northwest Regional in Stockton. LBSU earned a tough 15-11, 9-15, 15-12, 15-9 win over Pacific in the semifinals and then defeated No. 1-ranked Hawaii 11-15, 15-13, 10-15, 15-8, 15-10 to advance to its first-ever NCAA Final Four.

Once in Honolulu, the 49ers disposed of upstart Texas-Arlington in the semifinals 15-6, 11-15, 15-10, 15-7. That set up a championship match with Nebraska, an easy 3-0 winner over UCLA in the other semifinal. With Tara Cross nailing 20 kills and a .529 hitting percentage for the match the 49ers easily downed the Huskers 15-12, 15-0, 15-6. The 49ers hit .366 (42-12-84) for the match and limited Nebraska to a .000 hitting percentage (30-30-102).

1993 National Champions

Senior middle blocker Danielle Scott, the 1993 AVCA Player of the Year, led the 49ers to their second NCAA National Championship with an impressive run through the NCAA Tournament. The 49ers went 32-2 during the regular season and won the Big West Conference championship with a 17-1 mark. The only blemishes on the 49ers record were a tough five-game home loss to USC in late September and a five-game loss at arch-rival UC Santa Barbara on October 16. LBSU won its final 16 matches of the season.

In the first round of the NCAA Tournament The Beach downed George Washington 15-3, 15-8, 15-5. In the regionals, which the 49ers hosted at the Gold Mine, LBSU defeated Ohio State 15-7, 15-9 13-15, 15-12 to set up a meeting with Hawaii in the regional final. The 49ers recorded their third win of the season over the Wahine, winning 15-12, 15-7, 15-12.

The Final Four in Madison, Wisconsin saw the 49ers tangle with the Florida in the semifinals. The Gators were no match as the 49ers won 15-10, 15-6, 15-3. In the championship match LBSU met Penn State. Penn State had downed BYU in four games to reach the title match. Nichelle Burton pounded down a match-high 28 kills and the 49ers celebrated their second NCAA Championship with a 15-13, 12-15, 15-11, 16-14 victory.

May, who was named the AVCA Player of the Year for the second consecutive season, keyed a 49er offense which finished second in the nation with its .338 hitting percentage. Long Beach won the 1998 Big West title as May and head coach Brian Gimmillaro were honored as Big West Player and Coach of the Year. Gimmillaro also earned his first AVCA Coach of the Year award. Senior Benishe Dillard was a second- team AVCA All-America pick and, along with May and Dillard, Brandy Barratt, Veronica Walls and Anja Grabovac were first-team All-Big West Conference picks.

The 49ers breezed through their first five NCAA matches with 3-0 sweeps. In the national final vs. Penn State the 49ers and Nittany Lions battled for five games before the 49ers prevailed 15-3, 15-10, 13-15, 14-16, 15-12. Grabovac added 16 kills and a career-high 25 digs while Dillard added 16 kills and senior Jessica Alvarado closed out her 49er career with 17 kills and nine digs. A four-time Olympian (1992, 1996, 2000, 2004), a four-time All-American, two-time NCAA Player of the Year and the holder of almost every Long Beach State record, Tara Cross-Battle was the 49ers first NCAA Player of the Year and set the standard for those to follow. Cross-Battle led the 49ers to their first NCAA Championship with a 15-12, 15-0, 15-6 victory over Nebraska in the 1989 NCAA title match in Honolulu, Hawaii. The 49ers went 32-5 that season and navigated through a murderous NCAA Northwest Regional where they had to defeat No. 3 Pacific and No. 1 Hawaii just to make it to the Final Four. In January of 2001, Cross-Battle was named one of the greatest collegiate volleyball players ever, one of three Long Beach State players named to the six-member squad. In 2004 Cross-Battle became the first athlete (male or female) in USA Volleyball history to be named to four Olympic teams.

Cross-Battle earned her first NCAA Player of the Year honor in 1988 and then was selected as the NCAA Co-Player of the Year in 1989, along with fellow Big West Conference stand-out Tee Williams. At the 1989 Northwest Regional final, the 49ers thwarted the Wahine's hopes of reaching the Final Four in their hometown with a thrilling 11-15, 15-13, 10-15, 15-8, 15-10 win over the Rainbow Wahine. In that contest Cross-Battle recorded 29 kills, 16 digs and 10 blocks as the 49ers prevailed in the three-plus hour match.

At the Final Four the 49ers defeated Texas-Arlington in four games with Cross-Battle tallying 18 kills and 16 digs. In the national final vs. Nebraska, Cross-Battle had 20 kills and hit .529. She set a new NCAA record by totaling 126 kills throughout the 1989 NCAA Tournament. Cross-Battle concluded her stellar four-year career with 2,767 kills, the third-most in NCAA history. Her 5,694 total attempts and 1,578 career digs also place her first on the 49er career chart. She holds the top three single season kill marks, highlighted by 779 kills in the 1989 season, 12th-best in NCAA history. Despite the high number of attack attempts she hit for a very high percentage in her career, .344, to rank seventh on the LBSU career chart. In 1995, Cross-Battle won the FIVB's MVP Award (World's Best Player).

Antoinnette White

NCAA PLAYER OF THE YEAR (1991)

Antoinnette White capped a spectacular senior campaign in 1991 by leading Long Beach State to the NCAA Championship title match and earning AVCA National Player of the Year honors. White, a two-time first-team All-Big West selection and the 1991 Big West Player of the Year, was a second-team All-America pick her junior year.

In 1991, White tallied 567 kills, the seventh-best single season mark in 49er history, and 68 service aces. The 49ers were 36-2 during the 1991 season and captured the Big West title with a 17-1 ledger. In the NCAA Tournament the 49ers defeated Northern Iowa (3-0), UC Santa Barbara (3-1) and Hawaii (3-2) to reach the Final Four, which was being held in Los Angeles at UCLA's Pauley Pavilion. In the national semifinals the 49ers downed LSU 15-13, 6-15, 15-10, 15-13 to reach its second NCAA title match. In the title match the 49ers dropped a heartbreaking five game decision to the Bruins, falling 15-12, 15-13, 12-15, 6-15, 11-15.

White finished her 49er career third on the all-time kill chart with 1,717 kills in just three seasons in a 49er uniform. Her 208 career service aces are the second most in school history, and she ranks seventh in career digs with 1,052.

Her 91 service aces in 1990 also still remain a single season school record.

Big West All-Freshman Team

A first-team AVCA All-America selection, middle blocker Danielle Scott capped her senior campaign by being selected as the AVCA National Player of the Year and leading Long Beach State to the NCAA Championship. Scott led the 49ers to a 32-2 overall record and a 15-13, 12-15, 15-11, 16-14 win over Penn State in the national final in Madison, Wis. Scott had 21 kills in the final and spearheaded the 49ers to a 16-match win streak to close out the season.

Scott led Long Beach State to three straight Final Four appearances, culminating with the national title in 1993. In 1991 the 49ers fell to UCLA in the title match and in 1992 Stanford eliminated The Beach in the national semifinals. In January of 2001, Scott was named one of the greatest collegiate volleyball players ever -- (one of three Long Beach State players named to the six-member squad). In 2002, Scott was named the "Best Blocker" at the 2002 World Championships. In 2004 Scott was named to the Olympic roster in Athens, Greece. Scott was the only three-time Olympian on the roster (1996, 2000, 2004). Scott continued her Olympic success, joining fellow 49er Tara Cross-Battle in becoming just the second women's volleyball player to play in four Olympics, helping lead the US to a Silver Medal in Beijing.

The Long Beach State record book prominently displays Scott's name. Her 1,778 career kills ranks second-best in 49er history while her .421 career hitting percentage is the second highest mark in NCAA history (No. 1 on the 49er chart). She accumulated 604 career blocks at The Beach and she holds three of the top-seven single season attack percentage marks, highlighted by a school-record .452 percentage in the 1992 season.

Scott not only excelled in volleyball, but also in basketball and track and field. In the 1993-94 season Scott was named first-team All-Big West on the hardwood after averaging 17.4 points and a league-best 10.4 rebounds per game. With that honor she became the only Big West athlete to earn first-team all-league honors in two sports. In the spring she competed on the 49er track and field team. At the Big West Championships in May she participated in the long jump, high jump, triple jump and anchored the 4x100 meter relay team.

Misty May-Treanor

NCAA PLAYER OF THE YEAR (1997, 1998)
4-TIME OLYMPIAN - GOLD MEDALIST (2004, 2008, 2012)

What more can you say about the best women's collegiate volleyball player ever? Misty May closed out her fabulous four-year career at Long Beach State by capturing every individual honor available in leading the 49ers to a perfect 36-0 mark and the 1998 NCAA Championship. She capped her phenomenal season by winning the 1998-99 Honda-Broderick Cup, an award which is presented annually to the nation's outstanding collegiate woman athlete and selected by a national vote involving the more than 900 NCAA-member schools. She was just the second volleyball player to ever win the Honda-Broderick Cup Award and the first 49er to ever win the coveted honor. In 2004, May was inducted into the Long Beach State Athletic Hall of Fame.

A two-time American Volleyball Coaches Association (AVCA) National Player of the Year selection, a two-time Volleyball Magazine National Player of the Year pick and a three-time Big West Conference Player of the Year selection, May quarterbacked a talented 49er squad to the first perfect record in NCAA history as The Beach defeated Penn State (15-3, 15-10, 13-15, 14-16, 15-12) in five games to win the national title, the program's third NCAA women's volleyball championship. In January of 2001, May was named one of the greatest collegiate volleyball players ever, one of three Long Beach State players named to the six-member squad.

May led the 49ers to back-to-back Final Four appearances and back-to-back undefeated Big West Conference championships (16-0) in 1997 and 1998. May entrenched her name in the LBSU record book with her 5,045 assists (2nd), 160 service aces (2nd), 1,277 digs (3rd), .334 hitting percentage (6th) and 16 career "triple-doubles", including six in her senior campaign alone.

Selected as the Co-MVP at the 1998 NCAA Championships, May recorded nine kills, 70 assists, 11 digs and four blocks in the win over Penn State. In the national semifinal win over Florida (15-2, 15-8, 15-10) she had her sixth "triple-double" of the season with 11 kills, 15 digs and 32 assists.

Since leaving The Beach, May has racked up numerous awards and accomplishments. She went on an unprecedented 90-match winning streak with teammate Kerri Walsh in 2003-2004, winning 15 major international titles. Her successful career reached the ultimate highlight when she won the Gold Medal in Beach Volleyball (with teammate Kerri Walsh) in the 2004 Summer Olympics in Athens. May and Walsh became the first female Americans to win a Gold Medal at the Olympics in volleyball history, and repeated as a Gold Medalist with Walsh in the Beijing Olympics in 2008 and the London Olympics in 2012.

Long Beach State alumnae have had a long history of success after their time with the 49ers. On the beach, indoors, or leading from the sidelines, former Long Beach State standouts are making their mark on volleyball even after their time with the 49ers. Two-time NCAA Player of the Year Misty May-Treanor is one of the most dominant players in the world in beach volleyball, a four-time Olympian and a three-time Gold Medalist with partner Kerri Walsh.

Other Olympians in 2012 include Danielle Scott-Aruda, who has set an American record by heading to her fifth Olympic games, passing another former 49er in Tara Cross-Battle who represented Team USA four times. Tayyiba Haneef-Park also made her third Olympic team, heading to London as well. Long Beach State players continue to populate the professional leagues throughout the world as well.

Taking the lessons learned from the coaching staff at The Beach, former 49ers are also making a name for themselves on the sidelines. Former 49er Erika Chidester joined the Long Beach State staff in 2009, while Prentice (Perkins) Lewis and Traci Dahl are leading squads of their own and a number of 49er greats are working as assistants throughout collegiate volleyball.

In six seasons as the Director of Athletics at Long Beach State Vic Cegles has overhauled the 49er athletic department and provided a new path for the department to follow.

Cegles, who was hired as the school's 12th Director of Athletics in April 2006, has already made an impact in the athletic department's ability to fundraise which is key to his goal of making Long Beach State not only the premiere school in the Big West Conference, but a player on the national stage when it comes to both athletics and academics.

Since coming to Long Beach State, Cegles has placed strong emphasis on resource acquisition targeting the annual fund, capital improvements, scholarship endowments, ticket sales and corporate sponsorships. He established the 49er Athletic Club in 2006 and focused on centralizing annual giving. The reorganization has enabled teams to continue sport-specific solicitations and provide consistent recognition and benefits to donors.

The annual fund has increased in each year of Cegles' tenure and in the 2011-2012 fiscal year grew 13 percent. The campaign was highlighted by the recruitment of 51 new Director Circle members and a 20 percent overall increase in 49er Athletic Club membership. Attendance for men's basketball reached an all-time high averaging 3,620 fans per game.

Cegles continues to focus on facility enhancements and a $25 million capital campaign for athletics. In the fall of 2012 the $2 million expansion and renovation of the Walter Pyramid locker rooms were completed providing state of the art homes for men's and women's basketball and volleyball.

The addition of lights on George Allen Field initiated night competitions for soccer and opportunities for expanded community play. Also, a new student-athlete strength and conditioning center opened in the Pyramid while new scoreboards were erected for softball and soccer. Throughout the 2012 seasons an LED message board was displayed for all indoor events.

Under Cegles' leadership the university entered a long-term 55-year lease with the city of Long Beach to operate the iconic Blair Field, ensuring an improved home for Dirtbag baseball. In addition, master and fundraising plans have been created for a new practice infield, batting tunnels and a locker room and office facility.

Most recently Cegles and 49er athletics contracted with Nelligan Sports Marketing, outsourcing all media and sponsorship rights with the national collegiate sales company. NSM spearheads a commitment to increasing corporate sponsorships and sales of season and individual game tickets for baseball and basketball.

Long Beach State has excelled both on the playing fields and in the classroom under Cegles' leadership. Academically, for the fifth consecutive year all NCAA sponsored teams at Long Beach State scored above the required 925 on the Academic Progress Rate (APR), the only California State University to do so for five straight years, and 228 student-athletes were recognized as "Academic All-Stars" by achieving a 3.0 grade point average for the fall or spring semesters. Twenty-one student-athletes earned a 4.0 GPA and 50 earned a place on the President's List with a 3.75 GPA or better, with 45 placing on the Dean's List with a GPA between 3.5 and 3.74.

Diversity in the coaching and administrative staff is a fundamental goal and the athletics department was recognized under Cegles' leadership in 2008 as a national NCAA diversity winner.

Competitively, in his six seasons at the helm of the Long Beach State athletic department, the 49ers have won 22 conference championships, with 26 LBSU teams advancing to the NCAA Tournament. During the 2011-12 academic year, the 49er men's basketball, tennis, softball and women's volleyball teams claimed regular-season conference championships, while the men's basketball, soccer and women's tennis teams won their conference tournaments. The men's basketball, soccer, tennis, softball and women's volleyball teams all qualified for the NCAA Tournament, with the sand volleyball team advancing to the American Volleyball Coaches Association (AVCA) National Championship tournament.

The 49er soccer team highlighted the 2011-12 competition season advancing to the Elite Eight of the NCAA Tournament after winning three games. The tennis team advanced to the round of 32 in the NCAA Tournament with a 4-0 win over Arkansas, just the second tournament win in school history for the program. The sand volleyball team capped the year with a runner-up finish in the sport's inaugural national championship tournament.

Long Beach State's success on the playing fields and courts in 2011-12 resulted in the 49ers winning the Big West Commissioner's Cup for the second straight year and the third time in the last four seasons. The 49ers, who also claimed the award which recognizes the conference's most successful athletic department in 2008-09, scored a conference-record point total in claiming the latest honor. In 2010-11, the 49ers won three league titles with four teams advancing to the NCAA Tournament. LBSU teams won four league championships during the 2008-09 competition year with five teams making NCAA Tournament appearances.

That success came on the heels of the 2007-08 season where Long Beach State had six teams win conference championships and six teams advance to the NCAA Tournament, a year after winning three league titles and making four NCAA Tournament appearances in 2006-07. The 49ers also claimed one league championship and an NCAA Tournament bid, both by the women's volleyball team, in 2009-10.

Cegles has reorganized and refocused the entire administrative staff, and also negotiated new contract extensions for men's basketball coach Dan Monson and women's volleyball coach Brian Gimmillaro. During his tenure, Cegles has also hired nine new head coaches in softball, water polo, men's and women's golf, men's and women's basketball, and baseball.

From 2003-06 Cegles was the associate athletics director at Temple University where he directed athletics fundraising, marketing and promotions, sponsorship and ticket sales while planning an athletics capital campaign with university development.

Previously he was vice president of business development for Gaylord Sports Management in Scottsdale, Ariz., after serving 16 years at Arizona State University in athletic development and external affairs. He ultimately served as the lead senior associate athletic director for external affairs in his final two years at ASU.

While at Arizona State he led the athletics department's $25 million capital campaign to enhance facilities and endowments and, among other responsibilities, supervised baseball, men's and women's golf and women's gymnastics. He also was the assistant athletic director for development at Rutgers University for five years.

Cegles served as assistant basketball coach at Carnegie Mellon University and as an assistant basketball and baseball coach at West Virginia Wesleyan College and Indiana University of Pennsylvania. He holds a degree in business administration from Bucknell and a master's in counseling and student personnel services from Indiana University of Pennsylvania.

Cegles and his wife Bonnie have two sons. Vic a former baseball standout at Rutgers, is the director of the annual fund for the Virginia Commonwealth athletic department and Casey, a former wide receiver at Towson University, is an athletic development assistant for Old Dominion University.

WALTER PYRAMID

Home of Long Beach State Volleyball

The Walter Pyramid has played host to several NCAA sponsored events including numerous women's volleyball matches, the 2001 and 2003 Men's Volleyball Championships and the 2003 NCAA Women's Volleyball Regionals. The venue has also served as the host site for the NBA Summer Pro League and CIF Basketball Playoffs. It's also the site of many commercials and feature films.

The Walter Pyramid is believed to be the largest space-frame structure in North America. The building's infrastructure utilizes 18,000 steel tubes and connection modules, joined by more than 160,000 three-quarter inch bolts. If the tubes were laid end-to-end, they would form a pipe span 26 miles long.

The home of Long Beach State basketball and volleyball for over 15 years, the Walter Pyramid has become a nationally recognized icon for the university and the city of Long Beach. Because of its dramatic appearance, its unique multi-purpose capability and its lure for television production, the Walter Pyramid is one of the finest collegiate athletic facilities in the western United States.

On March 5, 2005, the pyramid officially became named the Walter Pyramid, thanks to the generous donations presented to the university by Dr. Mike and Arlene Walter. Long-time supporters of the school, the Walters gift to athletics and academics was the largest single gift in 49er Athletics history.

Officially opened on November 30, 1994, the 49ers rolled to a 71-64 win over the University of Detroit before a crowd of 5,021 and an ESPN television audience.

The structure's distinctive cobalt blue exterior has permanently altered the city's skyline. It rises 18 stories above north campus and can be seen for miles in all directions. It has provided a quantum leap in both the image and effectiveness of the Long Beach State athletics programs, with an immediate impact on the 49ers' fan base, scholarship fundraising, recruiting and revenue generation. Nearly 200,000 visitors pass through the Walter Pyramid's entrances annually.

Designed by Long Beach architect Don Gibbs and built by the Nielson Construction Company of San Diego, The Walter Pyramid cost approximately $22 million.

The Walter Pyramid measures 345 feet on each side of its perfectly square base. Its floor space accommodates nine volleyball courts or three full basketball courts and four additional half basketball courts on the "activity" level.

One of three true pyramids in the United States (others are located in Las Vegas and Memphis), The Walter Pyramid's most unique feature is its cantilevered seating system, mounted on moveable platforms. When use of the floor level is required for physical education classes, each 81-ton seating platform can be raised hydraulically to expose over 39,000 square feet of beechwood flooring.

BUILDING CHAMPIONS

Jamie Hiegel
Head Coach
Strength & Conditioning

In 2012, Long Beach State Strength and Conditioning moved into the Walter Pyramid, providing a better and more cohesive training experience with a move into a larger and closer facility to the majority of the teams at Long Beach State. Overseeing the program are head strength and conditioning coach Jamie Hiegel and assistant coach Chris Whittle. At Long Beach State, athletes are exposed to techniques that will help build a character foundation necessary to succeed in life through hard work, pride, dedication, and a commitment to excellence. All training movements are sport specific to copy a student-athlete's performance during competition. Programs are specifically designed to promote injury prevention by pre-habilitating the student athlete and allow them to match the demands of their sport.

EDUCATING CHAMPIONS

June 21, 2006 was the grand opening of the new Bickerstaff Student-Athlete Academic Center. Formerly known as the Center for Student-Athlete Academic Services, the new center nearly triples the size of the previous space. The center provides a top-of-the-line facility for our student-athletes to get the academic support and assistance they deserve.

The center is named after Glen and Debbie Bickerstaff of Los Alamitos (pictured at right), both loyal supporters of 49er athletics. The Bickerstaffs have been involved with Long Beach State for several years and have given nearly $1 million dollars in donations to the student-athlete scholarship program. They donated $625,000 for the Legacy campaign which went towards the naming of the new center. Their second legacy commitment was for $250,000 to help with the completion of the student-athlete strength and conditioning complex.

The Bickerstaff Academic Center provides quality academic services to 49er student-athletes. This includes advising, to ensure that each student-athlete is enrolled in the appropriate courses so they may earn their degrees while maintaining athletic eligibility. The Bickerstaff Academic Center is geared to maximize student-athletes' chances for classroom success through a developmental advising program integrating academic, student, and athletic assistance. The opening of the center provides 49er student-athletes the best academic support facility in the Big West Conference.

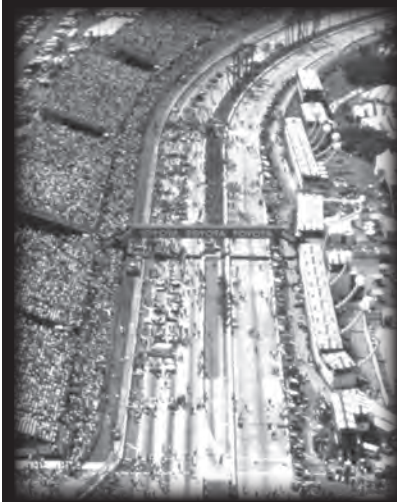

Debbie and Glen Bickerstaff

- Directed by Gayle Fenton and assisted by Sandra Shirley, the purpose of the Center is advising to ensure that each student-athlete is enrolled in appropriate courses leading to a degree while maintaining their eligibility.
- The Bickerstaff Center for Student-Athlete Academic Services has established itself as a unique and important asset in the lives of 49er student-athletes.
- The center's "Career Connection" program spotlights internships in the sports industry. They also offer a freshman mentoring program which connects freshmen with veteran student-athletes.
- Each student-athlete has a file created and their progress is monitored throughout their education. He or she is aided in choosing a degree, developing proper study habits and keeping a balance between personal, scholastic and athletic lives.
- Student-athletes can choose from a multitude of renowned academic schools and 81 undergraduate degree programs. Programs in the colleges of business, physical therapy, art and engineering are nationally famous. The schools of communications, radio/television and education are also strong.

Players' medical and injury needs are the responsibility of a highly qualified and diverse professional staff. The daily injury evaluation, management, treatment, rehabilitation, and first aid of our student-athletes is the responsibility of both head athletic trainer Jarrod Spanjer and rest of the sports medicine staff. Assisting Spanjer are assistant athletic trainers Katie Davis and Brittany Beckwith along with three graduate students. There are also numerous athletic training students who work under the guidance of Spanjer, Davis and Beckwith. Since 1987, Dr. Larry Drum has been acting as the team physician for all LBSU student-athletes and Dr. Alexandra Chrysanthis joined in practice with Dr. Drum and assists him in providing care. Since 1992, Dr. Peter Kurzweil has served as our volunteer orthopedic surgeon for all student-athletes. The physicians attend many of our home competitions and are readily available for first aid and diagnostic needs on site. There are various other highly-skilled physicians, podiatrists, and dentists who regularly volunteer their services to our student-athletes.

Certified Athletic Trainers (ATC) are on hand for all home practices and competitions and, also, for many of the away competitions that our student-athletes participate in to assist in treatments should a problem occur. 49er athletics provides student-athletes with a state-of-the-art athletic training facility located adjacent to the Gold Mine Gymnasium and an additional, smaller treatment facility located on the playing floor of the Walter Pyramid. With well-equipped facilities and knowledgeable and capable personnel on staff, a sick or injured student-athlete at Long Beach State is assured of quality treatment.
